Bobby Hamilton

In the ever-unfolding and expanding image of a musician comes Bobby Earl Hamilton. Bobby has spent his life loving music and everything about it. His dreams of being a drummer began as a small child. At the ripe age of 2, Bobby acquired his first drum-set through strategic negotiations with his parents. He agreed to stop beating on the furniture and Mom and Dad agreed to pick up the expense for his first pair of drum sticks and first set of drums. This simple agreement set the wheels in motion.

Throughout his career Bobby has shared the stage with many famous musicians including the likes of Adema, Depswa, Firehouse, Dierks Bentley, Toby Keith, Sugarland, Emerson Drive, Jake Owen, Diamond Rio, The Zack Brown Band, Warrant, Korn, Zakk Wylde, Staind, and many more. He has played as a session drummer in Los Angeles, Nashville and his current home of Phoenix, AZ.

Recording under famed engineers/producers Aaron Carey, Gin Blossoms, Megadeth, Phunk Junkeez and Sheryl Crow, Larry Elyea, Jimmy Eat World, Authority Zero, and Beastie Boys, Ken Mary, Ever Stays Red, Fifth Angel, Kendall Gaveck, The Beach Boys, Megadeth, Larue and Alice Cooper.

Steve Fagiano

Began his love of drumming at the age of nine in his home town of Chicago Illinois, starting with the St. Michael's drum and bugle corps. Followed by the Chicago Royal Airs drum corps, the year they won three different National Championships.

While serving in the United States Marine Corps, he performed in the Commandants Own "United States Marine Drum and Bugle Corps " in Washington D.C. Possessing an impressive back ground full of excellent credits in the drum corps and rock fields during his forty five years on the music scene, Steve has performed with J.C. Curlewski of Styx fame, the multi talented Buddy Miles, White Snake keyboardist Rick Seratte, Gabe Magno from Ted Nugent, Ronnie Keel and the list goes on. He also has taught nine years at the McHenry County College in Illinois and five high schools in Arizona. Steve's unending patience makes his teaching methods suitable for all levels of learning, from beginner through advanced. He also is the founder and director of the 19th Annual Heat Strokes drum contest, started in Arizona and is back after 12 years in Illinois. Steve Fagiano:
